

"KASCON I has set an incredibly important precedent for better communication and understanding in the Korean-American Community."

— Susan Yang, Smith '87

"I made friendships that I hope will last a lifetime."

— Julie Whang, UVA '89.

"Congratulations on an immensely successful KASCON I... for taking the pivotal step towards realizing a united Korean-American student organization to further our interests and future success."

— John P. Koo, Williams '87

"We all had a wonderful experience. Job well done!"

— Linda Kang, Rutgers '87

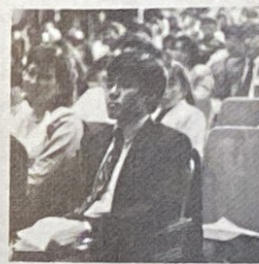

"I met many interesting people and I was very impressed with the speakers . . . It is my hope to see KASCON grow, contributing to the Korean-American community."

— Michael Chin, UVA '90

"I am proud that Korean-American university students in the United States and Canada have joined together to seek better ways of promoting the Korean-American community. I hope that you will contribute to the societies in which you were nurtured, using the talent and expertise you are acquiring through your valuable schooling."

— Honorable Kyung-Won Kim
Korea's Ambassador to U.S.A.

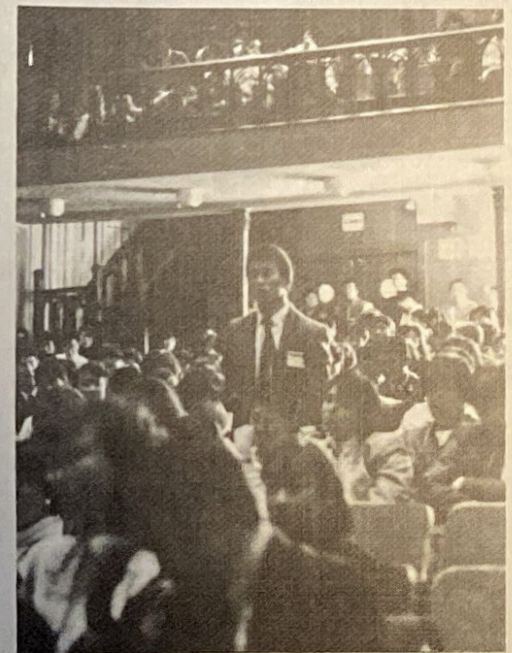

Scenes from the Inaugural KASCON, April 4, 1987,
"A Celebration of Korean-American Heritage"

KASCON II

The 2nd Annual
Korean-American Students Conference

"Our Future is Today"

April 8-10, 1988
Princeton University