

- Readings
 - Richard Fung, Orientalisms - film (optional)
 - Eugene Lim, Dear Cyborgs
 - Lavender Godzilla, publication by GAPA - Gay Asian Pacific Alliance (Pick your own issue)
 - Instructions for Access: go to <https://researchguides.dartmouth.edu/wgst>
 - Click Archival Databases
 - Click Archives of Sexuality and Gender: LGBTQ History and Culture Since 1940
 - Sign in with Dartmouth ID
 - Search for Lavender Godzilla -- make sure to pick a full-length issue
 - Celine Parrenas Shimizu, “Hypersexuality of Race”
 - Mel Y. Chen, “Asian American Speech, Civic Place, and Future Nondisabled Bodies” (read through Summon)

Week 5 - Transnational Capitalism - Jen & Todd

(Iyko Day?) What do Asian American labor movements say about capitalism and transnationalism? How does transnationalism and capitalism interact to create new hierarchies of power? How does capitalism co-opt our desires? Where do Asian Americans lie in the geopolitical constellations of capital accumulation and labor exploitation?

- Concepts
 - Intersections of transnationalism and capitalism
 - Desire - personal and accumulation
 - Transnational labourers
- Readings
 - Aihwa Ong, “Flexible Citizenship” -- intro
 - Iyko Day, “Alien Capital”--intro
 - Haunani Kay Trask, “Settlers of Color and “Immigrant” Hegemony: “Locals” in Hawai’i”
 - Revisit “Serving the People”

Week 6 - Wartime activism - Ken

How does U.S. militarism shape Asian American subjectivity, citizenship, and movements?

- Concepts
 - Citizenship, state inclusion
 - Refugee studies
- Readings
 - Jasbir Puar, “Terrorist Assemblages”